The Ladies Aid Society of Redeemer's United Church of Christ will hold a brief business meeting tomorrow evening, at the church, after serving a banquet to the Soroptimist Club.

St. Aloysius Services
The Rev. William A. Boyle, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, told about the Mission Board of the Diocese of Harrisburg at the Sunday morning masses. Members of the congregation were invited to "invest" their extra funds with the board. This may be accompanied by contacting the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Schmidt, chairman of the board, or Father Boyle.

There will be mass in St. Aloysius Church on Sunday morning; other days of the week, mass will begin at 8:15 a.m. Confessions will be heard on Saturday from 3:30 to 5 and from 7 until all are heard in preparation for the annual Forty Hours Devotions. Forty Hours will open at the 10 a.m. mass on Sunday, when a high mass will be sung by the senior choir, and will close with the 7:30 p.m. service on Tuesday, Oct. 15. Members of the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 7:30 a.m. mass on Sunday and will participate in the procession at the closing service on Tuesday. The Forty Hours will be conducted by a priest of the Passionist Order.

Father Boyle announced the following committees for the weekly Saturday night party in the parish hall: Refreshments, Mrs. Kenneth Stuller, Mrs. Pius V. Pautenis, Mrs. John Krichen, Mrs. Daniel Dietrich, Mrs. Richard Schuchart, Mrs. Albert Ozminski and Mrs. John

"PAST OR FUTURE"

I ponder on the golden past... the days that used to be... and in my mind I fancy things... that I fill my heart with... I talk with friends... I used to know... who passed along the way... and reverie brings back to me... friendship's divine bouquet... good times appear to further ease... my sojourn into dreams... bringing sweet fulfillment to... my most secretive schemes... recaptured youth and tender loves... all seem so very near... but now the spell is breaking and... reflections disappear... it's just as well that way... because the past is dead... and I would be much better off... by looking straight ahead.

The Junior Fellowship of Centenary Methodist Church met on Friday evening in the church social room, and the members continued work on their plaques with Bible verses. The work was supervised by Mrs. Chester S. Byers, adult counselor. The date was tentatively set to have a Halloween party on Friday, Oct. 25. Plans will be furthered at the next regular meeting on Friday, Oct. 18 at 6:30 p.m.

Hagerstown Museum Has Painting Display

During October paintings by the greatest living and recent French painters from Baltimore's Museum of Art are being shown at the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, Hagerstown, as part of its Saldie A. May collection.

In this group will be works by Picasso, Leger, Klee, Miro, Dufy and Derain, which Bruce Etchison, the director of the Hagerstown museum, has borrowed until October 31. The French sculptor, Desplais, is represented by a portrait bust of Mrs. Saldie A. May who assembled the collection while living in France.

Sunday was opening day for this exhibition. Sunday hours are 1 to 6. Weekdays except Mondays the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts in City Park is open from 10 to 5. Admission is free.

Christ Church Choir will rehearse on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Observe Communion
World-wide communion was observed in Redeemer's United Church of Christ on Sunday, with services at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. The message was delivered by the Rev. Louis J. Hammann, pastor pro tem. During the 10:30 service a solo, "Communion Hymn," Oyle, was sung by C. Donald Bowser, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. George A. Stonestifer. The altar flowers and bulletins were given by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Stambaugh in memory of their son, Hershey. The nursery conducted during the 10:30 service was in charge of Mrs. Elmer W. Gall and Mrs. Richard D. Thomas.

Women of Redeemer's Church are reminded that it is now time to renew their Homewood Auxiliary membership by contacting one of the following committee: Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, chairman, Mrs. Theron J. Basehoar, Mrs. A. C. Garland, Mrs. Edward B. Gelman, Mrs. Charles A. Hofe, Miss Helen Jacobs, Mrs. Glenn S. Kauffman Jr., Mrs. Anna B. Leach, Mrs. John W. LeGore and Mrs. Ralph Staley. The new unit of the Homewood Church Home for the Aged will be dedicated in Hanover on Sunday, October 20, at 7 p.m. The address will be given by the Rev. Frederick D. Eyster.

Redeemer's Singing Juniors will rehearse at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday; Senior Choir rehearsal will follow at 7:30 p.m.

CITATION FOR COLONEL HARRISBURG—Col. Earl J. Henry, state police commissioner, has been given a citation and plaque from the Boy Scouts of America in recognition of "outstanding service" given by troops during the recent International Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge.

Fire Chief McSherry Tells How To Survive In A Blaze

Get out of the house the minute you discover a fire or suspect one — and get everyone else out at the same time.

"Everyone should memorize this and other life safety rules about fire," warns Fire Chief Donald McSherry, "because they're your best guarantee of surviving a fire in your home."

He recommends these other rules as important to remember, too, if fire should strike:

Be ready with different escape routes from any room in your house.

Feel a door before opening; if hot, block it with furniture and seal with wet towels and blankets; try to get out another way.

Never jump from upper-story windows except as last resort; wait for firemen.

Hold your breath if you have to dash through smoke and flame; and remember that the air is usually better near the floor in a smoke-filled room.

Once out, don't ever go back in.

TIP FOR SMOKERS

Here's a special Fire Prevention Week tip for smokers. Matches and cigarettes are dangerous fire hazards only when you let them be — make certain your matches and cigarettes are completely out before you dispose of them. Get into the habit of breaking your used matches and grinding out the lighted end of your finished cigarette until it is cool to the touch. Make sure of your tomorrow — don't give fire a place to start.

HAVE HOME INSPECTED

If you have any questions about fire hazards in your home, don't wait until after the fire to ask about them. Call the fire department today to inspect, and help you spot fire dangers in and around your home. Make sure of your tomorrow — don't give fire a place to start.

to a burning building — smoke and gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly; children very often go back into their homes, so keep them restrained.

Get medical treatment at once if you are burned or exposed to smoke; seemingly minor burns or smoke inhalation can be exceedingly dangerous.

Call the fire department the instant you're certain that everyone is safely away from the fire — and leave the fire fighting to trained firefighters.

PLAN FOR CHILDREN

If you're planning to go out tonight, mother and dad, do your plans include having someone in to care for your children while you're away? Your fire department hopes with all its heart that your answer is "yes" — that you won't leave your youngsters alone and helpless tonight or ever. Get a competent sitter to stay with your children whenever you go out — even if only for a few minutes. Take them with you if you can't find someone to stay with them, but never leave them alone. Make sure of your tomorrow — don't give fire a place to start.

LIFE SAFETY ADVICE

Here's some special life safety advice from your fire department: Once you've escaped from a burning building, never go back in for any reason. Smoke and gases from even the smallest fire can be deadly. This is Fire Prevention Week — don't give fire a place to start.

LOCATE ROOM EXISTS

As you hear this, give a thought to how you might escape from the room you are in if fire suddenly blocked your normal way out. Wherever you are, it's always smart to plan your way out before fire strikes. This is Fire Prevention Week. Don't give fire a place to start.

CHECK YOUR HAZARDS

If a fire strikes your home, in what room will it start? The fire department says the most likely place is either the kitchen or living room where one out of every two home fires start. Bedrooms and basements are the next most likely starting places. This is Fire Prevention Week and a good time to check all the rooms in your home for fire hazards. Don't give fire a place to start.

QUIT SMOKING

A good way to quit smoking — and living — warns Fire Chief Donald McSherry, is to smoke in bed. Break this deadly habit before it breaks you. This is Fire Prevention Week. Don't give fire a place to start.

GIVES ADVICE ON FIRE SAFETY

Are your children safe from fire at home and at play?

"I'm sure most folks can answer 'yes,'" says Harold Culp, president of the Gettysburg Fire Department. "Parents generally realize that they can do a lot to keep fire from harming their youngsters."

For those parents who may have a few doubts, though, Culp has this special Fire Prevention Week advice on child fire safety:

1 — Keep very young children — two and under — in sight and in mind all the time; they need 100 per cent protection from fire.

2 — Teach older children the safe and proper uses of fire and thus to respect it; remember that they learn best by your example.

3 — Keep the child's home — your home — free of fire hazards; your fire department is ready to help you spot those hazards.

4 — Know the right way to escape from any building in an emergency and train your children to be as ready and able to do the same.

5 — There's a quick and a sure way to call the fire department; knowing the right way before any sudden emergency can very well mean the saving of precious seconds — and perhaps even the life of a child.

CHICAGO WAS DESTROYED BY BLAZE IN 1871

This week (October 6-12) marks the 86th anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire — and the 35th anniversary of the special week which commemorates the terrible destruction by fire of one of the world's great cities.

This is Fire Prevention Week, so proclaimed by President Eisenhower in the United States and by Governor-General Massey in Canada. By tradition, both countries officially observe Fire Prevention Week each year during that calendar week which includes October 9, designated as the anniversary date of the Great Chicago Fire of 1871.

Fire Prevention Week actually started as a special day dedicated to "bringing before the public the much-needed lesson of fire prevention." Fire Prevention Day as it was known, was first observed on October 9, 1911. Its original sponsor was the Fire Marshals' Association of North America which is now a section of the National Fire Protection Association.

Heavy Fire Loss
It was in 1920 that President Wilson issued the first National Fire Prevention Day Proclamation. And, finally, in 1922 the entire week including October 9 was officially proclaimed Fire Prevention Week by President Harding.

Guiding spirit behind Gettysburg's observance of this special week, past and present, is the fire department.

The national sponsor is the National Fire Protection Association in conjunction with the International Association of Fire Chiefs, the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, and a number of other public service organizations.

Is fire prevention still "the much-needed lesson" the fire marshals thought it to be nearly half a century ago? Last year's fire losses — the people killed and property destroyed — provide the tragic answer: fire in North America in 1956 cost the lives of 11,100 persons and $1,385,000,000 in property.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

If you should ever be trapped by fire in your home, here's some advice that could be worth your life: Hold your breath if you have to dash through smoke and flame; and remember, too, in a smoke-filled room the air is usually fresher near the floor. This is Fire Prevention Week. Don't give fire a place to start.

HERE'S HOT TIP

It's Fire Prevention Week and here's a hot tip on fire safety from your fire department: Get out of the house the instant you discover a fire or suspect one — and get everyone else out at the same time. Then call the fire department. Remember, the first thing in a fire emergency is to get everyone safely away from the fire!

PROTECT YOUR FAMILY

It's Fire Prevention Week and your fire department urges you to make sure of your family's tomorrow — don't give fire a place to start!

CHILD SAFETY ADVICE

If you have a child in your home two years old or younger, here's some special fire safety advice from your fire department: Keep your youngster in sight and in mind all the time. Children this age need one hundred per cent protection from fire.

ADVICE FOR PARENTS

It's Fire Prevention Week and the fire department has this special fire safety advice for parents: Teach your children the safe and proper uses of fire. This way, they learn to respect fire. And remember, they learn best by your example.

McSherrytown Car In Hanover Crash

Mrs. Theresa M. Gross, 26, of 339 Main Street, McSherrytown, suffered minor injuries when the car she was a passenger in, driven by her husband, Larry B. Gross, 25, same address, collided with a machine driven by Blair Geisinger, 38, Hanover R. 2, at the intersection of Hanover and Baltimore Sts., Hanover at 2:55 p.m. Saturday.

Police say that Gross, going south on Baltimore St., failed to stop at the signal light and crashed into the Geisinger machine traveling west through the intersection.

Mrs. Gross was taken to the office of a nearby physician treated for her injuries and returned to her home.

Damage to the two machines was estimated at $100 by police, who charged Gross with failing to stop for the traffic light.

THOUGHTLESS SMOKER STARTS MANY BLAZES

Match heads and cigarette butts have no brains — and the same can be said for the 200,000 smokers in this country who persist in setting our homes and forests on fire each year.

On the average, according to Fire Chief Donald McSherry, the thoughtless smoker starts about 200,000 fires of all kinds in a year.

The sad part of it, the chief says, is that we almost always make the mistake of placing the blame for these fires on the match and cigarette rather than on the selfish, unthinking person who used them.

Some Simple Rules

For thinking persons who would be smart and safe smokers, Chief McSherry recommends being ever mindful of these simple rules:

1 — If you smoke in bed, break this deadly habit at once. It is one of the most common — and most correctable — causes of fire deaths.

2 — Make certain your matches and cigarettes are completely out before disposing of them; break the match between your fingers and grind the cigarette until the lighted end is cool to the touch.

3 — Have plenty of safe ash trays around your house and office; such an ash tray should be noncombustible, nonspillable, nontippable and large — but not so large as to substitute for the waste basket.

4 — When driving, discard your matches and cigarettes in the car's ash tray; see to it that other passengers do so, too.

5 — After parties and every night before retiring, look beneath sofa cushions and around stuffed chairs for cigarettes that may have fallen unnoticed into such highly combustible hiding places.

May Give $250 Reward For Live Litterbugs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The city may declare open season on litterbugs.

City attorney Dion Holm has delivered a legal opinion that the city fathers may offer a $250 bounty on the pest and post signs offering that reward for information leading to arrest and conviction.

Holm not only said such signs would be legal; he drafted a brief ordinance offering the $250 reward.

It appears they'll have to be brought in alive, however. Nothing was said about pelts.

Tries To Swat Fly And Is Fined $10

DETROIT (AP) — Harold Chandler had to pay $10 for assault and battery because he took a swat at a fly.

The trouble was that Chandler, 31, was in a restaurant at the time and he didn't hit the fly at all. His swat nearly unseated Frieda Mooney, 25, who was sitting on an adjoining stool.

Miss Mooney's escort Fred Boone, 35, wasn't impressed by Chandler's story of the fly. A scuffle resulted.

Chandler was fined by Recorder's Judge Elvin L. Davenport.

Pennsylvania Will Auction Sawtimber

HARRISBURG (AP) — Almost 3 million board feet of sawtimber will be auctioned off this month by the State Forests and Waters Department.

Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, department secretary, said the timber was cut as part of the department's program of selective cutting on state forest land "as a practical aspect of technical forest management."

He said similar cuts were sold in 1956 at auction to bring the state more than $300,000 in revenue.

Gettysburg Firemen Plan U.S. Scientists Full Observance Of Fire Prevention Week In Town

clude the two Mack trucks, "Mighty Mack" and "General Ike," the ladder truck, rescue truck, ambulance and other equipment of the company, including rescue and such special equipment as a Deluge Nozzle which will be demonstrated Tuesday night.

Will Show Movies

During the two-hour period firemen will be on duty at each vehicle to give details to visitors of the operation and features of the equipment.

A screen and projector will be set up in the southwestern quadrant of the square to show motion pictures of fire prevention at various times during the night. A loud speaker system is being set up on the southwestern quadrant of the square to amplify the speaking from the programs to be held each night on that section of the square.

Also in the southeastern quadrant will be an exhibit of pictures of the fire department in action over the years.

Tonight's speaking program will consist largely of fire prevention talks and details by Fire Chief Donald W. McSherry and others.

Demonstrate Nozzle

Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock the program will include motion pictures, display of equipment, and a demonstration by the Gettysburg Firemen of various types of equipment. Included in the demonstration will be use of the Deluge Nozzle, which can hurl 1,000 gallons of water per minute either in a stream 150 yards long, or as a fog.

Also scheduled for demonstration Tuesday evening is the means that would be used to rescue an injured person from a building. The ladder truck will be employed to bring an "injured person," simulated by a fireman, from the roof of one of the buildings on the square.

Wednesday evening the display and movies will continue, with the Letterkenny Fire Department putting on the demonstration of its special skills. The Letterkenny firemen, because of the nature of the materials stored there, have developed a number of techniques that are not a normal part of fire training.

Appeals For Crowd

Thursday evening the motion pictures and display will continue, with an "Old Timers Night" part of the special program. Judge W. C. Sheely will speak and a number of the retired members of the company will be asked to tell of the work of the firemen and their equipment of years ago.

Cards listing how to call for fire or ambulance service will be distributed each evening.

Signs designating the equipment, its cost, and other details will be placed at each piece of apparatus.

Fire Chief McSherry said, "The firemen hope a large crowd will turn out to see the display. The equipment was purchased from money raised by public support of the fire department and the only purpose of the department is to provide service for the public. We hope the Fire Prevention Week display and program will give the public a chance to see what their fire department has for their protection."

BRIDAL SHOWER HELD

A bridal shower was held Sunday afternoon at the Midway Fire Hall for Miss Mary Gloria Small, McSherrytown. About 40 guests were in attendance and the bride-to-be received many beautiful gifts. The surprise shower was held by Mrs. Alex Kijek, New Oxford, and Miss Verna Simpson, Midway.

Miss Small will be married in the near future to Francis J. Baker, Hanover.

entist in Alaska had made the first official U.S. sighting with the naked eye.

It credited this "first" to Dr. Gordon B. Little, assistant director of the geophysical station at the University of Alaska. Little reported he and three graduate students spotted the Soviet sphere at 5:01 a.m. yesterday over College, Alaska. Little was quoted as saying the satellite was surprisingly bright and that it could be seen for about five minutes.

However, three young University of Alaska scientists were reported yesterday to have been the first Americans to see the satellite with the naked eye.

Dr. Gordon B. Little, assistant director of the university's geophysical station, said Robert S. Leonard, Joseph Pope and Dr. Giancarlo rumi watched it for five minutes starting at 9:53 a.m. EST, yesterday.

SHANE BROOK RITES

Queen St. Ext'd., Littlestown, who died very suddenly at his home on Thursday evening, were held with brief rites this morning at 8:30 o'clock at the J. W. Little and Son Funeral Home, Littlestown, followed with requiem high mass at 9 o'clock in St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Littlestown. The pastor, the Rev. Fr. William A. Boyle, officiated. Interment was in St. Aloysius Church Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Clarence J. Krichen Sr., Amos L. Spangler, Charles W. Randall, Charles M. Prock, Paul H. Scheivert and George Mayers.

Midway during the first Princeton-Yale football game in 1873 the football burst. The game was delayed a half hour before the players could locate another ball.

"NORTHEASTER"

pany reported "very little damage." Manager William Leutz said a line across a line near the post office here Sunday afternoon burned out a transformer and cut off service for a time for about a dozen patrons. Another transformer near Aspers was burned out in the same way. There was other scattered damage caused by the wind and all was taken care of by midnight.

Calvin Cluck, Adams Electric Co-operative manager, said there was little damage to cooperative lines in this county but more in York County. A substation at Red Lion was out of service for several hours, affecting 400 to 500 customers, and there was other scattered trouble.

Sunday's rains totaled 1.03 inches here, the greatest amount of rain that has fallen here in any 24-hour period since April 5.

Inch Of Rain Falls

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A northeaster, with drenching rain and 50-mile-an-hour winds, struck southeastern Pennsylvania yesterday.

The storm, moving in from the South Atlantic, dumped more than an inch of rain. There was some flooding and wind damage in many sections.

More than a score of private boats were ripped from their moorings in Lower Bucks County along the Delaware River. The storm also forced cancellation of the annual Pulaski Day celebration in Philadelphia.

Down Power Lines

The winds knocked down some power lines and ripped signs from their moorings.

Tides ran three feet above normal in the Delaware River with most of the flooding in nearby low areas. Air traffic at Philadelphia International Airport also was slowed.

Less violent winds and some rain also hit the central part of the state.

BURY MRS. HILDEBRAND

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Alverta (Bucher) Hildebrand, 86, widow of S. Emory Hildebrand, formerly of Littlestown, who died on Thursday morning at the Pleasant Acres Hospital, York, were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the J. W. Little and Son Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Littlestown, officiated. Interment was in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Littlestown. Serving as pallbearers were John Hildebrand, Clarence Caler, Edgar A. Wolfe and Hugh Miller.

AMBASSADOR TO SPEAK

GETTYSBURG COMMUNITY CHEST
GETTYSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

Dear Friend:

You can have a hand in so many people's happiness when you give to the Community Chest because . . .

. . . the Gettysburg Community Chest serves so many people.

Have you ever stopped to think that your contribution to the chest is an investment in your community—not a hand-out?

Consider the agencies that receive your gift. They are dedicated to building character . . . acting in an emergency . . . bettering our community . . . plus many other progressive endeavors.

In fact, each and every one of us in the Gettysburg area uses one or more of the Chest's agencies each year.

So won't you consider your gift a little more carefully this year? You can never receive a greater return on any other investment you make.

Thank you,

Gordon J. Webster
